ZINEMA7
HOTEL*

We were Astoria7. We are Zinema7.

Built on the foundations of what was for 4 decades the biggest cinema in San Sebastián, Zinema7 Hotel, formerly Astoria7, is a reflection of the city's passion for film. A stellar hotel in which every suite, every room and every corner pays tribute to the stars that have been at the Zinemaldi, our International Film Festival.

Located in the peaceful neighborhood of Amara, its privileged location invites you to take a pleasant 10-minute walk along the recently remodeled green avenue of Sancho el Sabio to the romantic area, as well as to walk downstream Urumea towards its the Kursaal or bike to the epicenter of the hustle and bustle of the old town in 5 minutes.

Walking with attention to details will reveal the most authentic Donostia.

We celebrated our 15th anniversary!

15 years is seeing everything that has been achieved and everything that remains to be achieved as a team. It is betting on things well done. It is to improve, innovate and surprise.

Turning 15 is just the beginning of everything that has happened and everything that is yet to come.

Thank you for joining us.

EWAN MC GREGOR

Escocia 31/03/1971

Ewan McGregor, como una ola

Tiene el aspecto del yerno perfecto pero con una inquietante sombra trágica en la mirada. Ewan McGregor se parece fuertemente a Xabi Alonso: se diferencian en que el primero es actor y escocés, y el segundo es futbolista y de Tolosa, pero tienen en común la sonrisa franca y el talento. Alonso reparte juego en los estadios y McGregor en los rodajes: sus compañeros de reparto siempre parecen mejores si trabajan con él.

La carrera de este actor parece una montaña. Cantante bohemio en 'Moulin rouge', caballero enigmático en las primeras entregas de 'Star Wars' o antihéroe desubicado en 'Transcending', McGregor vino a San Sebastián en 2012 para recoger un Donostia muy especial. Porque el escocés fue el galardonado más joven con el premio: lo recogió con solo 41 años, que parecían menos con su cara de pálido adolescente.

Ewan McGregor llegó al Festival a presentar 'Lo imposible', la impresionante película de Juan Antonio Bayona. Y fue el propio director el encargado de entregar al actor su estatilla donostiana. Lo que dijo Bayona nos sigue sirviendo hoy: "En la vida de Ewan es difícil separar ficción de realidad porque en las dos aplica riesgo y pasión, humanidad y honestidad". Y Bayona lanzó el mejor propio: "Para mí película necesitaba a alguien como Spencer Tracy o como Gregory Peck. Y Ewan es como ellos". El actor recordó que sus películas habían desfilado en el pasado por el Festival. "San Sebastián es como el instigador de mi carrera", dijo. Y quedó por eso el premio le emocionó tanto, aunque insistió en que el Donostia solo galardonaba "media carrera". "Me queda al menos otra media por hacer". Y se despidió con un mensaje que parecía el estribillo de una balada romántica: "Es sobrecogedor venir a Kuriaa y recibir esta oleada de amor, pero en esta ciudad un amor especial por el cine". Tenía razón: esta ciudad ama el cine y él llegó como una ola. Es escocés pero empieza a parecer de Tolosa.
